

November 7, 2014

Contact: Regina Burgess at 522-2120 or rburgess@nwrls.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Elves and the Shoemaker at the Library

The Bay County Public Library and the Northwest Florida Music Teachers Association will present The Elves and the Shoemaker on December 8, 2014 at 6 PM in the library's Youth Services Department. This family program is free and open to the public.

This classic Brothers Grimm fairytale will be performed by the Atlantic Coast Theatre and features original musical with new lyrics set to traditional holiday melodies. In this version, an elf must help a poor shoemaker with the help of the elves in the audience. Please come and help the poor shoemaker!

The Northwest Florida Music Teachers Association is a nonprofit organization whose members are professionally engaged in the teaching of music. During the spring, benefit concerts are held at the library with all donations going toward the music collection and musical performances for the Bay County Public Library's Youth Services Department.

For more information on this and other great programs at your library, visit www.nwrls.com or call 522-2100. The Bay County Public Library, part of the Northwest Regional Library System, is located at 898 West 11th Street in Panama City.

###