Representative Gwen Graham Gets Donation for Liberty County Libraries

Bristol, Florida -- Representative Gwen Graham procured a donation of 187 books and other items for Liberty County Libraries from the Library of Congress. These much-needed items will be dropped off at the Jimmy Weaver Memorial Library in Hosford around 4:00 PM on August 27th by members of the representative's staff. Materials include books suitable for all ages of library users. Materials will be distributed at both Liberty County Library locations and through programs' such as the library's Books to Go Program. Liberty County librarian Gerard Giordano said, "The materials are most welcome and will be put to good use. On behalf of the entire library system, I wish to express our thanks to Representative Graham, her staff and the Library of Congress for all their help and hard work supporting public libraries."
