FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Maynard R. Miller Art Exhibit at Bay County Public Library

(PANAMA CITY, FL) – Local artist Maynard R. Miller will exhibit his work at the Bay County Public Library throughout the month of January. The artwork should be on display beginning January 4th.

Originally from south central Pennsylvania, Maynard Miller is from a military family. His father and brother were both in the US Army. Maynard is a US Air Force veteran, and was stationed at Tyndall AFB from 1981 until 1986; he has lived in the area ever since.

Maynard says, “I have always been interested in the visual arts, and ever since grammar school I have always found time to keep up with news in the art world.” Artists who have inspired him include Rembrandt, Tintoretto, and Ingres.

Maynard is a self-taught oil painter. He has attended drawing and painting classes at Gulf Coast State College, and he has also taken classes in wood sculpting and mechanical drawing. He recently studied DVDs featuring artist David A. Leffel.

The Bay County Public Library is located at 898 West 11th Street in Panama City. For more information, please call 522-2100 or visit www.nwrls.com.
