

January 13, 2016

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Homeschool Huddle Hero Fair at the Library

(PANAMA CITY BEACH, FL) – Students from preschool through sixth grade will present independent history projects at the Panama City Beach Public Library’s “2016 Homeschool Hero Fair” on Thursday, January 14, 2016 at 1 p.m. Each project features the life and work of a person of historical significance who was educated at home. The students are participants in Homeschool Huddle, a weekly adventure in collaborative learning at the Beach Library. The projects will be on display in the library for one week.

Homeschool Huddle begins with a focus on books and reading. The program provides an opportunity for kids to make valuable connections with other students and experience the excellent resources of the public library. Homeschool Huddle meets Thursdays at 1 p.m. at the Panama City Beach Public Library. Students of all ages and visitors are always welcome!

The Panama City Beach Public Library is located at 12500 Hutchison Boulevard in Panama City Beach. For more information, please visit www.nwrls.com or call 233-5055.

###

Contact:

Heather Ogilvie, Branch Manager

Panama City Beach Public Library

12500 Hutchison Boulevard

Panama City Beach, FL 32407

850-233-5055

hogilvie@nwrls.com

www.nwrls.com