MIDNIGHT TRAIN: HARRIET TUBMAN ON THE UNDERGROUND RAILROAD VISITS THE LIBRARY

(Bristol, Fla.) Midnight Train: Harriet Tubman on the Underground Railroad will be presented at the Harrell Memorial Public Library on Tuesday, February 20th at 1:00 p.m. EST. The program is part of the Florida Specific Cultural Project Touring Grant. Mary J. Kelly will portray Harriet Tubman during her years as a slave, her journey to freedom, and her endeavors to help others flee northward. Mary's portrayal of Harriet incorporates a storytelling style utilizing characterization, song, and movement creating a realistic view of being enslaved. Harriet's story is one of triumph and survival under the harshest conditions one can imagine. This performance provides Florida youth and communities a glimpse of the amazing woman that will be featured on the $20 bill in 2020. The program is free and open to the public.
